OBJETIVOS

Las salidas profesionales que tiene el curso son:

Technicians from organizations (public/private) or companies dedicated to tourism activity.

The main objective of the Certificate is to offer specialized and ad hoc training, aimed at promoting entrepreneurship and innovation in the field of tourism, raising awareness of the need to rely on a more social economy, an endogenous development of local, sustainable base and in favor of the improvement of the quality of life of the set of citizens.

METODOLOGÍA

Students must take an active, autonomous and responsible role in the learning process, which implies paying active attention to the teacher's explanations, as well as prior and subsequent reading of the materials selected specifically for the group of which they are a part. In addition, they must be diligent in carrying out the tasks and exercises that are prescribed, for which they must develop the correct planning of learning times. The teaching methodology appropriate to the characteristics of the subject, advises that the teacher's explanations will be supported by the relevant complementary material, in which the audio-visual media will play an active role. This will facilitate the understanding of the speeches of both the teacher and the historical sources that will necessarily be used in class. The teacher will tutor the training experience from the proximity required by the uniqueness of the student group, and students will receive, when necessary, adequate guidance on aspects related to theoretical training and content of the subject.
